13. Through both its information and advocacy work, The Pew Charitable Trusts seeks to inform and advance the development of sound public policy in the United States, as well as to strengthen the institutions that form the foundations of our democracy. A major component of this ongoing strategy has been to help create an environment in which policy makers can productively deliberate important issues of the day. The purpose of the retreat is to provide a collaborative environment for the chiefs of staff to learn from experts and discuss issues of importance to an effective legislative process.
14. The Pew Charitable Trusts has directly sponsored congressional travel. This will be the sixth Senate chiefs of staff retreat hosted by Pew (2007, 2009, 2011, 2014, 2015). In the past, the Pew Charitable Trusts has also funded other institutions via grants to conduct their educational programs and some of these programs may have included congressional travel.
15. The Pew Charitable Trusts is driven by the power of knowledge to solve today's most challenging problems. Pew applies a rigorous, analytical approach to improve public policy, inform the public and invigorate civic life. We partner with a diverse range of donors, public and private organizations and concerned citizens who share our commitment to fact-based solutions and goal-driven investments to improve society. Pew issues dozens of research reports each year to educate the public and policy makers. Pew also sponsors convenings of researchers and experts to examine various issues of public policy and civic life.

- 9:30-11:30am Breakthrough Communication: Navigating High-Stakes Conversations, Peter and Susan Glaser
Communication skills are the first step in developing strong relationships, making quality decisions, and creating high performance teams. But, most importantly, communication can serve as a tool to constructively manage conflict. This training is rooted in the Glasers' 39 years of field-tested and published research on interpersonal communication and leadership development. Participants learn seven communication models to understand and transform high-stakes conversations into a powerful and effective stimulus for change.
- 11:30am-12:00pm Break
- 12:00-1:15pm Lunch with special guest "Patrick Henry"
- 1:15-2:30pm State of the News Media, Amy Mitchell, Pew Research Center
Eight years after the Great Recession sent the U.S. newspaper industry into a tailspin, the pressures facing America's newsrooms have intensified to nothing less than a reorganization of the industry itself, one that impacts the experiences of even those news consumers unaware of the tectonic shifts taking place. Amy Mitchell will brief chiefs on the annual "State of the News Media" report and its implications on public policy.

2:45-3:30pm How Technology, Robotics and Automation May Affect the U.S. Economy in the Future, David Pogue, Yahoo Technology
David Pogue is the tech critic for Yahoo Finance, and was previously the personal-technology columnist for the New York Times for 13 years. He's also a monthly columnist for Scientific American and host of science shows on PBS's "NOVA," and a correspondent for "CBS Sunday Morning" since 2002.
